

CHAPTER 30 MONTGOMERY GI BILL® – ACTIVE DUTY (MGIB-AD)

---

This program is managed by U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). The VA bases their decision on active duty periods of service and enrollment information provided by the Service Member/Veteran's DoD Component.

Eligibility

In order to qualify, Service Members must be a High School graduate or equivalent or have successfully completed 12 semester hours in an education program leading to a standard college degree and meet at least one of the criteria listed below:

- Entered his/her initial active duty period (active component, mobilization or AGR) after 30 June 1985 and subsequently served in an active duty status for at least 2 years.
- Must serve consecutive years in an active duty (AGR) status. Minimum of 24 months of active duty service required if enlistment is for less than 36 months.
- Currently mobilized under Title 10 for a period of 2 continuous years.

NC ARNG Soldiers who meet the above criteria and none of the disqualifying factors, may request enrollment into the program.

Disqualifying Factors

- Declined enrollment at any time, in any branch of service.
- Served in an active component prior to 01 July 1985.
- Service Academy Graduate.
- Dedicated ARNG ROTC Scholarship Recipient.
- Separated under "Other than Honorable" conditions.

When do benefits expire?

- 10 years from the date of discharge from active duty service.
